

Financial Data Analysis - Insights

1. Spending Distribution Across Categories

This pie chart shows the proportion of spending across various categories, highlighting the dominant areas of expenditure.

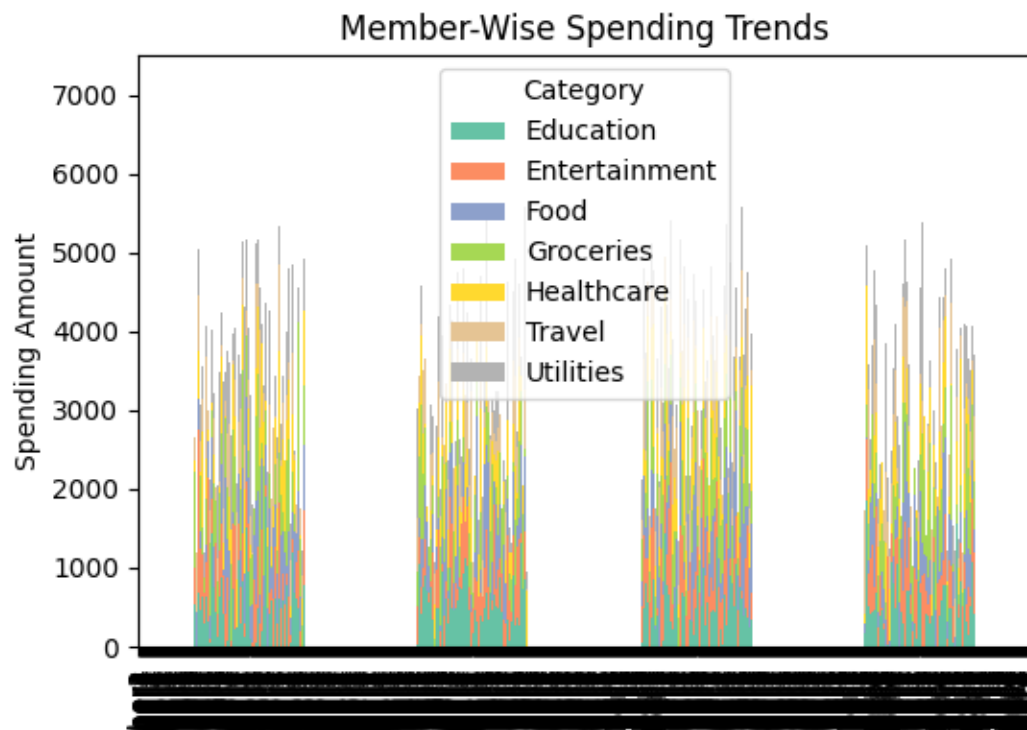

2. Family-Wise Financial Scores

This bar chart shows the average financial score for each family, indicating financial health differences across families.

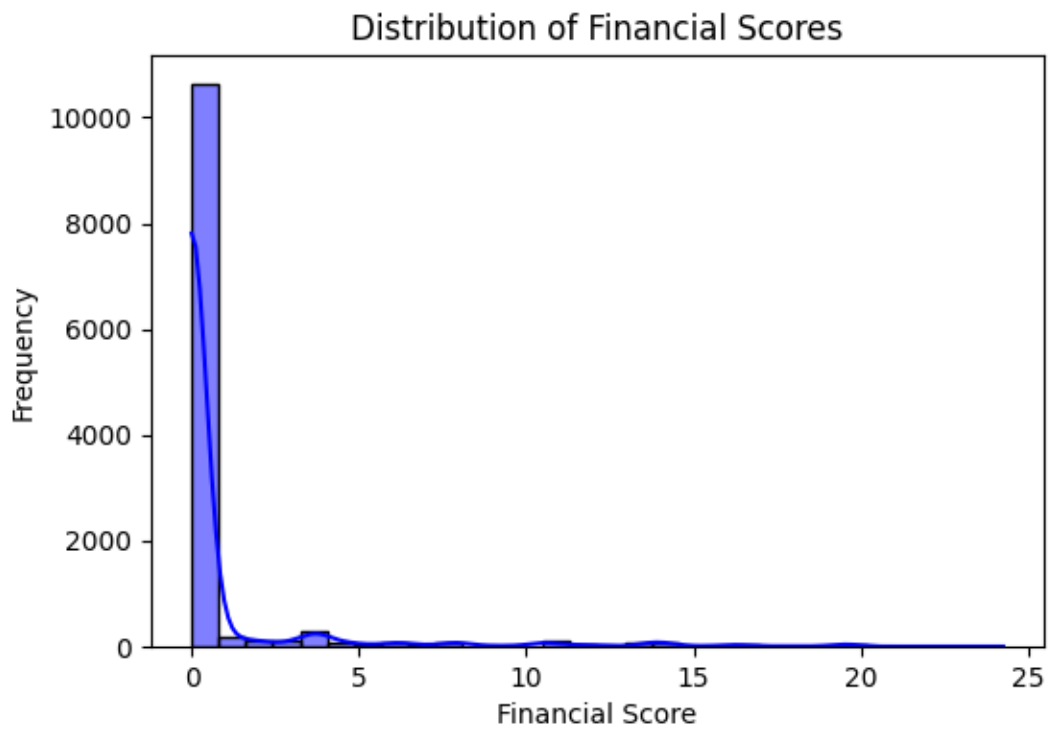

3. Member-Wise Spending Trends

This stacked bar chart visualizes member-wise spending trends across different categories, providing insights into individual spending behaviors.

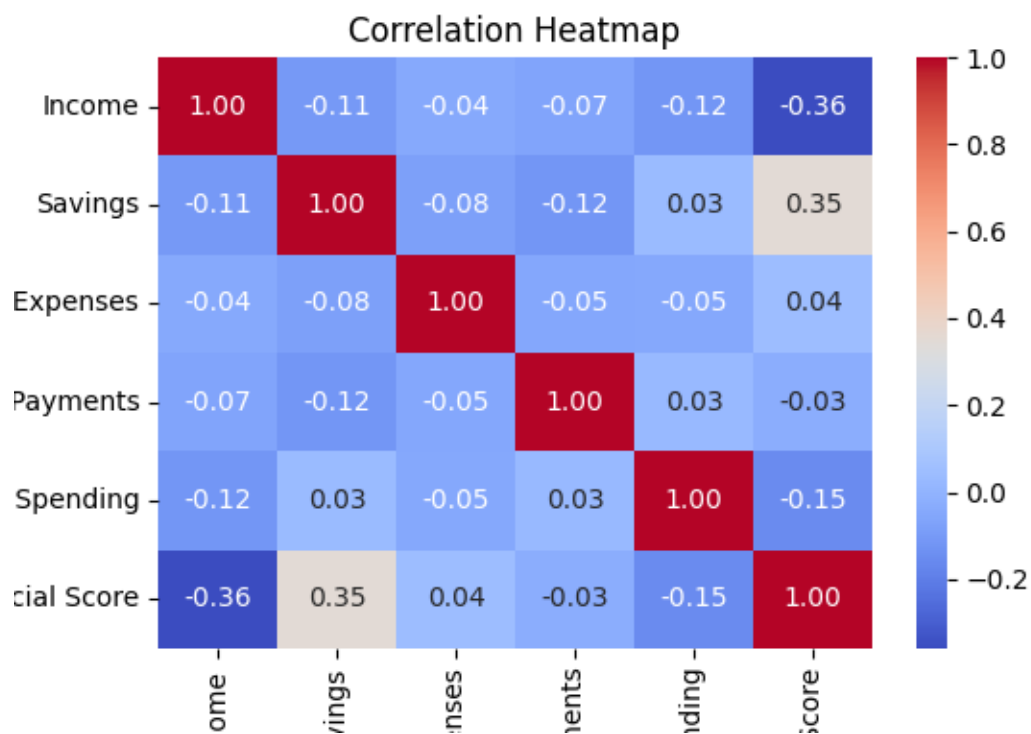

4. Financial Score Distribution

This histogram shows the distribution of financial scores, helping identify the range and common score brackets.

5. Correlation Heatmap of Financial Features

This heatmap shows correlations among key financial variables, revealing how different factors influence financial scores and behaviors.

6. Predictions vs. Actuals for Next Month

This scatter plot compares actual and predicted values for next month's expenses and savings. It evaluates the accuracy of predictions made by the financial model, providing insights into model performance.

